

Ongoing Trends – General/Special Education

- Increasing incidence of anxiety, depression, and emotional vulnerability required specialized support and programming.
- Increasing need for psychiatric evaluation due to escalating mental health issues (secondary level).
- Two-year trend of high need students entering the district after budget.
- Increased need for occupational therapy and speech and language mandated services (Elementary)

